

WEBINAR SERIES

Rehabilitation in conflict

This ten-part collaborative webinar series will introduce rehabilitation professionals to their role in conflict and provide an overview of the clinical management of key conditions.

It is delivered as a collaboration between World Physiotherapy, leading rehabilitation and humanitarian organisations and the World Health Organisation (WHO).

- 🕒 Time: 16:00 UTC/19:00 Beirut (Find your local time here)
- 📺 Platform: Zoom
- 🗨️ Language: English with Arabic translation
- 📌 Register: Register here, or scan the QR code. You will be sent a Zoom link from the organisers before the session.

Register your interest

| Date | Topic | Lead Speakers |
|------------------|---|--|
| Thursday 2 April | Rehabilitation in conflict | WHO |
| Thursday 9 April | Expert panel discussion - top tips | WHO, MSF, HI and ICRC |
| Monday 13 April | Fracture in conflict | World Physiotherapy |
| Monday 20 April | Spinal Cord Injury in conflict | ISCoS (International Spinal Cord Society) |
| Monday 27 April | Traumatic Brain Injury in conflict | ISPRM (International Society for Physical Rehabilitation Medicine) |
| Monday 4 May | Amputation in conflict | ISPO (International Society for Prosthetics & Orthotics) |
| Monday 11 May | Burns in Conflict | Interburns |
| Monday 18 May | Peripheral Nerve Injury in conflict | WFOT (World Federation of Occupational Therapists) |
| Monday 25 May | Communication and swallowing challenges in conflict | IALP (International Association of Communication Sciences and Disorders) |
| Monday 1 June | Pain management in rehabilitation | IASP (International Association for the Study of Pain) |

